

MANY WOMEN DONATE TIME TO RED CROSS

LARGE NUMBER OF PUTNAM COUNTY WOMEN ACTIVE IN VOLUNTEER WORK

There was released today from the Putnam county chapter office of the American Red Cross, a list of Putnam county women who have given one hundred or more hours of time to some phase of Red Cross production. Types of Red Cross work that are a part of production include knitting, sewing, packaging, and surgical dressings. Included among the women who have given countless hours to directing these various activities are Mrs. J. A. Bamberger, Mrs. William Boatwright, Mrs. C. D. Conklin and Mrs. Joe McCord.

Mrs. David Houck, chairman of Red Cross volunteer services, points out that many women, in all parts of the county as well as in Greencastle proper, did work for the American Red Cross before a system of time cards was installed. Because of that, Mrs. Houck states, the list of one hundred hour workers submitted herewith, must necessarily be incomplete. Corrections for the appended list will be welcomed in Red Cross office.

A vast quantity of Red Cross production has been completed by groups of women in rural communities. In such cases no time cards have been kept for individuals; thus, personal credit cannot be given in such cases.

Women who give one hundred hours in any or several departments of Red Cross production are entitled to wear the hundred hour pin and may receive this award of merit by calling at Red Cross office.

Included among the women and the groups who have given one hundred hours or more in the field of Red Cross production are the following: Mrs. A. A. Abbott, Mrs. Charles A. Allen, Mrs. Elwood Allen, Mrs. Floyd Allen, Mrs. Paul Allen, Effie Ashby, Mrs. Horace Askew, Bainbridge Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Sarah Baird, Alta Bales, Mrs. Joe Bamberger, Miss Louise Bicknell, Mrs. James Bittles, Miss Mary Bittles, Mrs. Paul Boston, Mrs. William Boatwright, Mrs. Verne Bowers, Mrs. Louise Bridges, Mrs. A. A. Brothers, Mrs. Sam Budich, Grace Call, Miss Mildred Caviness, Bernice Chastain, Nora L. Collins, Mrs. Charles Conklin, Mrs. John Cook, and Mrs. Loretta Cooper.

The list also includes: Mrs. Viola Cox, Mrs. Dorothy Crosby, Eva Crosby, Jean Crosby, Lola Crosby, Mrs. L. C. A BEAUTIFUL COUNTRY HOME

This is the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arnold, four miles east of Greencastle on the Fillmore black-top highway. It is set in the midst of beautiful shrubbery and huge maples and even on a hot summer day is cool and inviting. The white stoned driveway at the left, leads to the home from the highway and to many who pass the Arnold home, it is one of the most beautiful in the county. Mr. Arnold is kept busy with his grain and livestock farm which comprises several hundred acres.

AMERICANS AT OUTSKIRTS OF JAP AIR BASE

FALL OF MAFFIN AIRDROME TO YANKS EXPECTED MOMENTARILY

SOUTHEAST ASIA HEADQUARTERS, Kanaky, Ceylon, May 26.—(UP)—Allied troops have trapped a Japanese column moving in from the west to reinforce Myitkyina, a communication said today, as bitter fighting continued in and around the besieged enemy stronghold in Northern Burma.

A L L I E D HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, May 26.—(UP)—American infantrymen, spearheaded by a tank attack and supported by artillery and fighter planes, have reached the Maffin airdrome five miles west of the Tor River on the Dutch New Guinea mainland and have cut off Japanese retreat from the airstrip, it was announced today.

Capture of the 5,000-foot airstrip appeared imminent. While U. S. infantrymen smashed nearly five miles along the Dutch New Guinea coast, advancing in the face of raking fire from Japanese artillery, mortars and automatic weapons, American artillery demolished a bridge across the Woske River, west of Maffin airdrome, cutting off the retreat of the airstrip's defenders.

The communiqué disclosed that the Wakde airstrip on Inasomoor Island, established as an American base last Sunday after infantrymen had all but annihilated its enemy defenders, has been lengthened from 2,500 to 6,000 feet by U. S. army engineers.

A spokesman said it now was one of the finest airfields in the entire Southwest Pacific. The Philippines, 1,025 air miles away, are within bombing range of the airfield.

The assault on the Japanese lines guarding Maffin airdrome, which had been holding up the American advance for several days, was led Wednesday by General Sherman tanks.

A headquarters spokesman said some casualties were suffered by the tank forces.

Enemy casualties in the Wakde-Sarmi area operation for the seven days since the first landings stood at 917 dead and five captured in comparison with 61 Americans killed, 182 wounded and three missing.

An additional 151 Japanese were killed and 29 were captured as general mopping-up operations progressed 125 miles to the east in the Hollandia-Aitape area.

Eleven enemy planes were destroyed on the ground and four others were damaged Wednesday when Lt. Gen. George C. Kenney's fifth air force hit Namber airdrome on Noemfoor Island in Geelvink Bay, approximately 300 miles west of the Wakde Islands.

A single Liberator bomber ranged 150 miles southwest of Truk Monday to hit Omol Island in the Carolines.

CITY FIREMEN ANSWER TWO ALARMS THURSDAY

City firemen were called to the Thompson home at 1003 south Locust street, shortly before 1 p. m. Thursday.

Upon arrival the firemen found that the flames, which they said started in an upstairs play room, had a good start and had spread to the attic and roof. Considerable damage resulted but no estimate was made Friday morning.

Then at 7 p. m. Thursday, an alarm was sent in from Pleasant Garden to which the firemen responded, sending one truck to the National Road town, southwest of here. Upon reaching Pleasant Garden the firemen were told that the fire was at the Reese Jobe home, a short distance south of U. S. 40, but that it had been extinguished.

At the Jobe home, it was reported that a bolt of lightning struck the wiring resulting in a fire which damaged the ceiling of the dining room.

NAZIS OCCUPY VITAL POINTS IN BULGARIA

TURKS REPORT GERMANS TAKING ENTIRE BLACK SEA COAST

LONDON, May 26.—(UP)—Turkish dispatches said today that five German divisions—75,000 men—have begun the occupation of strategic points in Bulgaria and the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia warned that the country "stands on the brink of catastrophe."

German troops took over the entire Black Sea coast, Balkan sources in Ankara said, presumably in an effort to prevent any Allied landing attempts, and radio Algiers reported that the Nazi command also had seized the Bulgarian fleet at Burgas.

The Germans called their precipitate steps in Bulgaria "security measures," an Ankara dispatch to the United Press said, "but all signs indicate that it is the equivalent of occupation similar to that of Hungary."

At least one of the five divisions engaged in occupying telephone exchanges, bridges and other key points in Bulgaria was said to have crossed over the border from Serbia.

Ankara sources also reported that Christo Kalfoff had succeeded in forming a new government composed entirely of known pro-Nazis.

At Moscow, the newspaper Izvestia said that the formation of such a government "of Hitlerite butchers and direct agents of Germany will still further aggravate the position of the country, which stands on the brink of catastrophe."

There was no confirmation that Russia had delivered an ultimatum to Bulgaria calling upon her to cease her pro-German policies by midnight last night. The ultimatum was reported in a Turkish dispatch to the London Daily Mail.

Radio Algiers said many Bulgarians suspected of anti-Nazi sympathies were being arrested. A former agriculture minister was said to have been among those already imprisoned.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude McClure are in receipt of a letter from their son who is somewhere in Italy, in which he told of the pleasure he had when Felix Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Cook, visited him one day recently. They were members of the same graduating class in high school and spent the afternoon in sunny Italy recalling old times and enjoying themselves, even though it was with the sound of big guns booming on the Anzio front.

REDS TAKE HAND IN TREATMENT OF ALLIED PRISONERS

RUSSIA WILL DEMAND THAT JAPAN CHANGE ATTITUDE ON BRITISH, YANKS

WASHINGTON, May 26.—(UP)—Soviet Russia's decision to intervene with Japan in behalf of American and British prisoners was hailed here today amidst growing belief that Japan may be trying to erase some of her bad record for treatment of prisoners.

The United States has tried for more than three years to work out a systematic way of providing American prisoners with supplies. Several of its proposals have been flatly rejected and some haven't even been answered.

Now, suddenly comes hope that the Japanese may be persuaded to give prisoners better treatment and to allow regular shipments of supplies to them. In an effort to clinch such prospects, Great Britain and the United States have asked the Soviet Union, which is not at war with Japan, to approach Japanese officials on the subject.

Russia agreed to act and there was little doubt here that her voice would carry great weight, especially of the eve of promised new offensives by the allies in the Far East.

The good news for the families of the thousands of Americans and Britishers held by the Japanese was first revealed by British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden. The State Department soon confirmed that the United States and Great Britain had made a joint request of the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Union will seek from Japan "particular satisfaction" on three points: 1. Recognition of the right of Swiss and International Red Cross representatives to visit all camps and report on conditions; 2. Granting of complete lists of all persons held and of those who have died; 3. Agreement to receive regular shipments of Red Cross supplies to be delivered by neutral ships to Japanese ports.

It is well known that Japan, now that the allied die has been cast for crushing blows against areas occupied by Japan and against Japan proper, is anxious to make doubly sure that the Soviet Union will not form the northern part of a giant pincers movement against her when the war in Europe ends. It therefore is believed that she will latch far more attentively to Soviet diplomats regarding treatment of prisoners than she has to those of small neutral nations.

Belief that Japan may be trying to help her record in the eyes of the western nations is based on these developments this month:

1. Japan sent a note to the United States promising a plan for delivery of 1,500 tons of supplies in Vladivostok to American prisoners.

2. She agreed to allow prisoners and civilian internees in the Philippines to buy $25,000 worth of supplies each month locally with money provided by the United States government.

3. She agreed to let the Dutch government in exile also provide money to its people in the East Indies for the purchase of needed supplies.

State Department officials said that the Japanese note regarding the supplies in Vladivostok is still being studied. The supplies have been there nearly a year and are there as a result of the cooperation of the Russian government.

J. L. ETTER FUNERAL WILL BE SATURDAY

WELL KNOWN RETIRED GROCER PASSED AWAY THURSDAY DAY EVENING

John Lee Etter, age 82 years, well known resident of Greencastle and a former merchant, died Thursday afternoon at the home of his son, Ralph Etter, 616 Anderson street.

Mr. Etter was born in Putnam county, August 30, 1861, the son of Jacob and Mary Hall Etter. He was the youngest of seven children, all of whom preceded him in death.

In 1884 he was united in marriage to Mary Belle Leonard. To this union one son was born. Mrs. Etter died when Ralph was six years old. In 1900 Mr. Etter married Mary L. Hepler Hurst, who preceded him in death in 1936.

Mr. Etter came to Greencastle in 1904 and operated a grocery business on the northeast corner of the square for 30 years. For many years William Cooper was his partner in business.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Rector Funeral Home. Burial will be in the Manhattan cemetery.

FDR Fourth Term Endorsed By CIO

WASHINGTON, May 26.—(UP)—The CIO political action committee, which already has endorsed President Roosevelt for a fourth term, plans to call a national conference in Washington in mid-June to chart its program for the 1944 political campaign, it was disclosed today.

A CIO spokesman said more than 300 delegates—the committee's regional and state directors and field officers as well as political action representatives of CIO affiliates—were expected to attend the conference on the eve of the Republican and Democratic national conventions.

The defeat or retirement of three of its foes on the Dies committee has focused increasing attention on the CIO committee. Its activities were blamed by Sen. Rufus C. Holman, R., Ore., yesterday for his recent defeat in the Oregon Republican primaries.

The committee said the June meeting would "outline labor views on issues which will decide 1944's crucial elections" and would prepare a platform calling for full production and full employment in the post-war period.

The conference also is expected to give further attention to the organizational problem of getting workers to register and to vote—a problem which has been given heavy emphasis during the early stages of the committee's work. CIO leaders have blamed the political lethargy of labor for what they interpreted as an anti-labor trend in 1942 and 1943 elections. They have been cheerful over the results of recent primaries.

BLOWS AGAINST JAPAN PROPER MAY COME SOON

PEARL HARBOR, May 26.—

(UP)—The almost complete lack of opposition encountered by an American carrier force in a two-day raid on Marcus Island, only 1,160 miles southeast of Tokyo, raised the possibility today that naval task forces soon may hit Japan itself.

Vice Admiral John H. Towers, deputy commander of the Pacific fleet, contributed to the speculation by wailing in a radio broadcast last night that American carrier task forces will "go ahead like line blockers in football, moving down resistance and finally hurling their great strength directly at the heart of Japan's homeland."

"Our Pacific enemy must be wondering where we will hit him next," Towers added. "He knows that he is vulnerable. He knows we are coming."

Only a few hours earlier, Pacific fleet headquarters disclosed that planes from an American carrier task force had dropped 148 tons of bombs on airdrome installations in 373 sorties against Marcus last Friday and Saturday at a total cost of four planes and three men.

Though the carrier force sailed north of Marcus to within possibly 1,000 miles or less of Tokyo, no enemy warships were sighted and only two enemy aircraft were seen in the area—a medium bomber that was shot down and a twin-engine plane which was strafed on the ground.

The task force also sent its planes against Japanese-held Wake Island, 884 miles southeast of Marcus, in a 254-sortie attack last Tuesday without the loss of a single plane or man, the Pacific headquarters communiqué said.

The weakness of the opposition to the twin raids suggested that the Japanese may have reduced the strength of their outlying fortresses even more than previously had been thought possible in order to concentrate everything for the defense of the home islands.

No other islands lie across the Pacific path from Marcus to Tokyo itself, though the Bonin Islands are 750 miles west and slightly north of Marcus.

Rear Admiral Alfred E. Montgomery of Piedmont, Cal., commanded the task force which raided Marcus and Wake and made probably the deepest penetration of Japanese waters since Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle's airmen took off from the carrier Hornet and bombed Tokyo April 18, 1942.

CISTERNA IS CAPTURED BY FIFTH ARMY

APPIAN WAY STRONGHOLD IN YANKS' HANDS AFTER BLOODY BATTLE

LONDON, May 26.—(UP)—Three German divisions fighting Marshal Tito's Yugoslav Partisans were being withdrawn today to reinforce battered Nazi troops in Italy, authoritative Yugoslav quarters said today.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NAPLES, May 26.—(UP)—The Fifth Army, swiftly exploiting the linking of its two fronts below Rome, captured the Appian Way stronghold of Cisterna in a bloody four-hour battle, occupied virtually the entire Pontine marshes, and pushed into the hills to the northeast, it was disclosed today.

Fighter-bombers attached to the Fifth Tactical Air Force yesterday made their largest-scale attack yet against German columns falling back along the Appian Way. Via Cassilina, and other roads south of Rome, destroying 610 motor vehicles and damaging 561 others. Twenty out of 80 intercepting German planes were shot down.

The toll taken by the pilots' bombs, shells, and bullets brought their two-day total to more than 900 vehicles destroyed in the past two days at a time when the enemy needs all available transport to reach his new defenses, presumably behind the beachhead front and Rome.

(A German communiqué said 80 allied tanks were destroyed in a bitter tank battle near Cisterna, which it claimed still was in axis hands. The communiqué acknowledged that the Germans had "disengaged themselves from the coastal plain to higher ground to the northeast.")

At the southeastern end of the embattled 70-mile front, British, Canadian and Polish troops of the Eighth Army seized Aquino and Piedmonte, probably the last strongholds in the old Adolf Hitler Line, and drove across the Melfa river in pursuit of the retreating enemy.

Vallecorsa, six miles north of Fondi, nearby Mt. Civitella and three peaks farther east fell to American and French elements of the Fifth Army in the central sector as the fast-breaking "on-to-Rome" offensive went into its third week.

The bag of prisoners for the first 34 days of the offensive rose to more than 12,000, including nearly 3,000 taken by the Anzio beachhead forces alone. Fifty-six towns and 78 peaks have been captured.

Cisterna, important highway and railway junction of the Appian Way 25 miles southeast of Rome, was occupied late yesterday by American troops after some of the bitterest fighting at the beachhead end of the front.

Though surrounded, the German garrison literally fought a last-ditch battle. The final American assault began at noon, and four hours later the last 100 surviving Germans surrendered. The remainder of the garrison was killed.

LONDON, May 26.—(UP)—The Vichy radio said Lyon was bombed today, apparently by American heavyweights striking at the French rail hub from the Mediterranean theater for the second straight day, since bad weather brought the record offensive by Britain-based planes to a halt.

A Nazi-controlled Vichy broadcast said that during an alert this morning in "central" France, bombs were dropped on Lyon, biggest transport center of southeastern France, and St. Etienne, 35 miles to the southwest.

Walter Bryan and Rex Haines of the U. S. Navy arrived home today from Great Lakes, Illinois where they have completed their boot training.

"They Die--That We May Be Free"

The bright red of the poppy has long marked the last resting place of many an American boy who died in combat. In government hospitals, veterans make the scarlet flowers you buy — to help incapacitated heroes of past wars; servicemen and their families of the present war; and the widows and orphans of all wars in which American men have laid down their lives. It's so little for you to do...

Fifteen thousand banks, serving every nook and cranny of this great land — under the virile and proved free-enterprise system — provide good reason for faith in America's future. Banks are tied up with progress — with your success — in many ways. But in order to respond to local conditions flexibly and to serve their communities faithfully, banks must have continuing freedom of action in the post-war world. JOIN GULF'S "ANTI-BREAKDOWN" CLUB TODAY!

BEFORE THIS WAR IS OVER, there may be only two kinds of people in America...

1. those who ride to work, 2. those who walk to work.

If you want to be in the fortunate group who will still be riding to work in automobiles, join Gulf's "Anti-Breakdown" Club today. How do you do it? Just come in for Gulf's Protective Maintenance Plan!

This plan was conceived by experts in car care. Gulf developed it because car maintenance is a most important civilian job. (8 out of 10 war workers use automobiles to get to work.)

Here's Gulf's Protective Maintenance Plan...

1 Protects your car at 39 danger points...

GULF's Protective Maintenance Plan includes Gulfex Registered Lubrication for 39 engine, chassis, body points. Six Gulfex Lubricants reduce wear.

2 Saves those bearings and piston rings...

THE AMERICAN Petroleum Institute recommends changing oil regularly. It's equally important to use a good motor oil like Gulfgrade, "The World's Finest Motor Oil," or Gulfube, an extra-quality oil that costs a few cents less.

3 Stretches your gas coupons...

AIR-FILTER and spark-plug cleaning, radiator flushing help give better mileage. A clean filter makes gas burn more economically; clean plugs add power; a clean radiator prevents over-heating.

DECORATION DAY MEMORIAL DAY

The 30th day of May is here again.

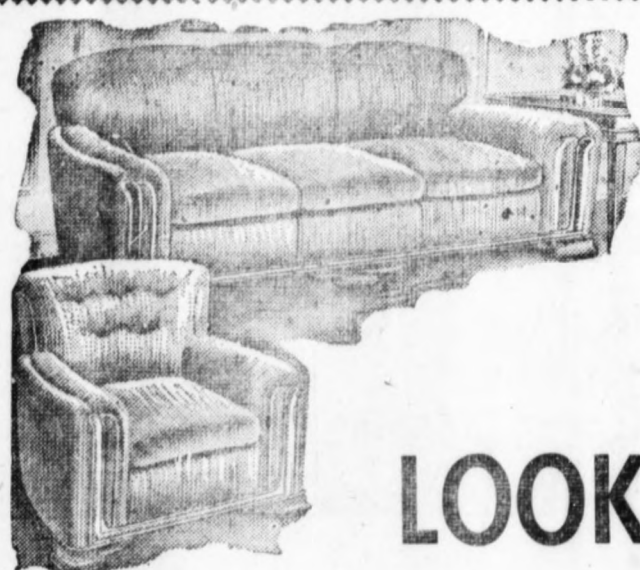

Our government -- yours and mine -- has set that day aside from the other three hundred and sixty-four, to honor, pay tribute and respectful appreciation to the dead and living fighting men of our country who follow the Stars and Stripes in battle.

Our way of life would have perished long ago had not the courage of our men proved unconquerable. And right today, our young men and women are still fighting for that same right of freedom -- willing to give their lives that we on the Home Front may still enjoy those Freedoms handed down to us by the blood of our forefathers. It is our duty and privilege then to hold these Memorial Day exercises.

Here in our own community -- Forest Hill Cemetery, at 2:00 P. M., Tuesday, May 30th, -- let's all assemble and pay tribute to those fighting men of yesterday and today.

The various committees have worked diligently to make this day a real Memorial Day in Putnam County. You and your family are now needed to complete the program. Help keep the traditions of America alive by being present.

CONCERNING THE POPPY

The idea of the poppy as a memorial flower for the World War dead sprang up as naturally as the little wild flower itself grows in the fields of France and Flanders. The flower was the one touch of beauty which survived amid the hideous destruction of war. Among the edge of the trenches, beneath the tangled barbed wire, about the ragged shell holes and over the fresh graves it raised its brave red blossom. It seemed to be the one immortal thing in that region where death reigned. The soldiers of all nations came to look upon it as the living symbol of the sacrifices of their dead comrades.

It was a poet who first gave expression to the idea. Soon himself to lie beneath the poppies, he wrote: "In Flanders' fields the poppies blow, Between the crosses, row on row."

Even before the men had returned from the war, the perfect little poem of Colonel John McCrae had winged its way around the world carrying the picture of the poppies. Returning soldiers brought the vision of the poppy fields back with them, engaged indelibly in their hearts with the memories of the comrades they had left on the battle-front. Spontaneously the poppy took on a sacred significance. It became the flower of remembrance for the men who had poured out their life's blood around the roots of the little plant.

Memories of the war dead always bring thoughts of those who did not die but came back doomed to years of hardship and suffering, sometimes worse than death. In the poppy was found a way to link the honoring of the dead with service for the living victims of the war. Soon after the war patriotic organizations in different countries began to conduct sales of poppies made by disabled veterans, to raise funds for relief work among suffering ex-service men and their families. A double significance became attached to the poppy. Wearing the little flower came to mean honoring the dead and helping the living.

The poppy also became the memorial flower of the British Legion. Other American veterans' organizations followed The American Legion and Auxiliary in adopting it as their official flower of remembrance. Soon many millions of the little red flowers were being worn each year in all parts of the English-speaking world, to honor the World War dead and to aid the war's living victims.

The nation-wide sale of memorial poppies was begun by the Legion and Auxiliary in 1921. At first silk poppies made in France by French widows and orphans were used. In 1922 the first poppies made by American veterans were produced in the hospitals of Minnesota, and this work has steadily expanded until poppies are being made in more than fifty hospitals and disabled veterans' workrooms in forty different states.

The crepe paper poppy was selected as the official poppy of The American Legion and Auxiliary because it provided the maximum of work for the disabled men, with the minimum expenditure for materials. The fabric poppy was considered, but it was not selected because making this poppy would not provide sufficient employment for the disabled veterans.

By 1924 it was seen that the poppy program lent itself more naturally to the work of women than of men, and The American Legion gave the Auxiliary complete charge of the national program. This was a heavy responsibility. Wearing the flower was the nation's annual tribute to the World War dead. From the distribution of the flower came a large portion of the welfare and relief funds of both organizations.

How well the Auxiliary measured up to the responsibility placed on its shoulders is shown by the development of the poppy program. Each year approximately 13,000,000 Americans wear Legion Auxiliary poppies in tribute to the war dead, contributing for the flowers over a million dollars for the welfare of the war's living victims.
